

HARYANA

10 DAYS - 9 NIGHTS

Delhi- Kurukshetra- Chandigarh- Ambala- Panipat- Hisar- Rewari-
Gurgaon-

Day 1: Arrival in Delhi and Travel to Kurukshetra

- Morning: Arrive in Delhi (the nearest major railway hub for Haryana).
- Noon: Take a train from Delhi to Kurukshetra (about 4-5 hours by train).
- Afternoon: Check-in to your hotel.
- Evening: Visit the Brahma Sarovar and Jyotisar (the spot where Lord Krishna gave the Bhagavad Gita discourse to Arjuna).

Day 2: Kurukshetra - Exploring Historical Sites

- Morning: Visit Bhishma Kund, a sacred water body linked to the Mahabharata. Also, explore the Krishna Museum to view artifacts related to the epic battle.
- Afternoon: Visit Sannihit Sarovar, an important pilgrimage site for Hindus.
- Evening: Head to the Devi Temple, dedicated to Goddess Saraswati. The temple is located at the foot of the Brahma Sarovar.
- Food: Enjoy traditional dishes like Lassi (sweet yogurt drink) and Bajra Roti (millet bread) with Ghee (clarified butter).

Day 3: Travel to Chandigarh

- Morning: Take a train from Kurukshetra to Chandigarh (approximately 3-4 hours). Chandigarh is a planned city, known for its beautiful gardens, architecture, and modern culture.
- Chandigarh Highlights:
- Rock Garden of Chandigarh: A unique garden made entirely of industrial and waste materials, showcasing sculptures and creative designs.
- Sukhna Lake: A man-made lake perfect for boating and relaxation.

• Sector 17 Plaza: The bustling shopping district of the city.

- Food: Try Chole Bhature (spicy chickpeas with fried bread) and Paneer Tikka (grilled cottage cheese). Don't miss the famous Chandigarh Kulfi for dessert.

Day 4: Chandigarh – Temples and Culture

- Morning: Visit the Mata Mansa Devi Temple, located in Panchkula, a prominent pilgrimage spot for Hindus. Then head to Nada Sahib Gurudwara, an important Sikh shrine.
- Afternoon: Explore Raja Dhiraj Temple and Himachal Bhawan, which offer a beautiful blend of regional culture and religious significance.
- Evening: Spend time at Rose Garden, one of the largest in Asia, ideal for a relaxed walk.

Food: Enjoy local treats like Chole Bhature, Samosas, and Kulfi. Chandigarh has a variety of eateries offering both traditional and modern food.

Day 5: Travel to Ambala

- Morning: Travel by train to Ambala (about 1.5 hours). Ambala is an important town in Haryana, known for its ancient temples and markets.
- Ambala Highlights:
- Kali Mata Mandir: A famous temple dedicated to Goddess Kali, located on the banks of the Ghaggar River.
- Ambala Jain Mandir: A beautiful Jain temple that attracts many visitors due to its intricate architecture.

Food: Try Ambala Paratha (flatbread) and Lassi (a traditional yogurt drink).

Day 6: Travel to Panipat

- Morning: Take a train to Panipat, famous for the historic battles that took place here (the Third Battle of Panipat in 1761). The city also has a number of temples and memorials.
- ### Panipat Highlights:

  - Panipat Battle Field: The location where the famous battles of Panipat were fought.
  - Kabuli Bagh Mosque: An important historical site built by the Mughal Emperor, Babur.
  - Devi Temple: An ancient Hindu temple dedicated to the Goddess Durga.
- Food: Try local sweets such as Gajar Ka Halwa (carrot pudding) and Paranthas (stuffed flatbread).

Day 7: Travel to Hisar

- Morning: Take a train to Hisar, an ancient city with a rich history dating back to the Mahabharata period.
- Hisar Highlights:
  - Baba Farid's Tomb: A revered site, as Baba Farid was an influential Sufi saint.
  - Hissar Fort: Built in the 14th century, the fort is an important historical landmark.
  - Jain Mandir: A Jain temple with beautiful architecture.
- Food: Dahi Bhalla (lentil dumplings in yogurt) and Chana Chaat (spicy chickpea salad) are popular snacks in Hisar.

Day 8: Travel to Rewari

- Morning: Take a train to Rewari (about 2 hours). This small city is known for its historical significance and temples.
- Rewari Highlights:
- Shree Kaleshwari Temple: A famous temple dedicated to Goddess Kaleshwari.
- Rewari Clock Tower: A prominent landmark in the city.
- Shekhpura Temple: Known for its peaceful surroundings and religious atmosphere.

- Food: Sample Methi Paratha (fenugreek flatbread) with Yogurt or Pickles.

Day 9: Travel to Gurgaon

- Morning: Catch a train to Gurgaon (about 1 hour from Rewari). Gurgaon (now called Gurugram) is a rapidly growing city near Delhi, famous for its modern infrastructure and vibrant food scene.
- Gurgaon Highlights:
- Sheetala Mata Mandir: A popular temple dedicated to Goddess Sheetala, which holds importance during religious festivals.
- ISKCON Temple: A peaceful place for spiritual learning and devotion.
- Kingdom of Dreams: A Bollywood-style theater that hosts live performances.
- Cyber Hub: A modern entertainment hub with restaurants, cafes, and nightlife.

Day 10: Delhi - Final Exploration and Departure

- Morning: Take a train to Delhi (just about 1 hour from Gurgaon). Delhi is rich in culture and history, with ancient temples and modern shopping districts.
- Delhi Highlights:
- Akshardham Temple: A stunning temple with intricately carved architecture, showcasing the cultural and spiritual heritage of India.
- Lotus Temple: A unique lotus-shaped temple known for its peaceful environment.
- Hanuman Mandir: An important Hindu temple dedicated to Lord Hanuman.
- Evening: Visit Connaught Place, a popular shopping and dining area in Delhi.
- Food: Delhi is famous for its street food. Try Chaat (like Aloo Tikki, Papri Chaat, and Pani Puri), Momos, Parathas, and Kebabs.